We would like to invite parents, carers and the local community to an afternoon of Information and Sharing on Wednesday 6th November from 2.00 - 4.00pm. There will be lots of agencies available giving out information regarding Housing, Communities for work etc. Come along and have a coffee with us. The choir and band will be playing.

Nursery

Letter of the week is 'i'. Please check our parent's notice board outside nursery door to keep up to date with our letters of the week. Please bring a spare change of clothes to leave on the children's peg. A reminder that Nursery's Christmas Concert is fast approaching! Please can the children practice their lines.

Dosbarth 1&2

In Reception we are really enjoying learning about autumn and experiencing natural objects in our classroom. We would be very grateful if the children want to bring in any extra natural things to our class especially objects like conkers and acorns. We would love to see your autumn walks if you want to tag our class twitter pages @MrEKey95 @scarroll95 Diolch!

Dosbarth 3 & 4

Congratulations

Well done to all the boys and girls who took part in the rugby festival at Cwmbran Stadium. The boys squad won 6 out of 7 matches only losing the final to New Inn by 1 try to 0. The girl's squad, playing in their first competition, won four out of matches. A great day!

Mr Phillips

Kind regards,

Mrs S E Roche & all the Staff at Garnteg
